

YOUR PARTICIPATION AWAITS

The American Paulownia Association is bringing the world of Paulownia wood opportunities to you in a “hands-on” craft and artisan conference during September 14-15, 2975 Salem Road, Parrottsville, TN

Activities Include: Hand & Small Power Tool Carving by Peter Tucker; “Tree Art” Chain Saw Carving by Jeff Doane; Custom Paulownia Guitars by Mario Martin; Strip Kayak & Canoe Fabrication by James Budi; Paulownia Tree Farming & Timber Production by David Sutton; Unique Paulownia Product Markets by George Newsome; and, Lifecycle of Paulownia Wood Utilization to Marketing by Dan Blickenstaff

Registration begins at 9am. Activities, craft displays and workshops until 5pm daily. ... (See reverse for details) ...

EVERYTHING PAULOWNIA!

Friday, September 14, 2018

Guest Artisan Introductions & Presentations
Tour of 10-Year Old Paulownia Plantation
Craft & Product Displays & Artisans @ Work

- Begin "Hands-On" Project Classes for All

Saturday, September 15, 2018

- Q&A Sessions with Artisans, Guests & Attendees
- Craft & Product Displays & Artisans @ Work
- Continue "Hands-On" Project Classes for All

Numerous Items, Plans & Supplies Available for Purchase

Handcrafted Art Pieces

Paulownia Lumber & Carving Blocks

Scaled Kayak & Canoe Model Kits

Paulownia Blossom Honey

Full Scale Kayak & Canoe Plans & Supplies

Bio-char & Other Paulownia Related Items

Daily Registration Onsite

Adult: $30/day ; $55/2-days

Children (<12yrs); $15/day ; $25/2-days

Bring lunch or purchase on site.

Small wood carving pieces provided,
bring your own tools.

Additional Information;

Cell/Text (423) 278-8891

Email <palownia@erols.com>

